Waste Management Donates $50k for Weona Pool

The Weona Park Community Pool received a $50,000 donation from Grand Central Landfill and Hauling/Waste Management of the Slate Belt to kick-start fund-raising efforts to rebuild the Pen Argyl pool.

Enhanced Threat for Fire Spread Today

The combination of lower humidity values, breezy conditions, and drying fine fuels will lead to an enhanced threat for fire spread today in the Slate Belt. Relative humidity values are forecast to drop into the 20s to around 30 percent, while winds will gust out of the northwest around 20 to 25 mph at times. Residents are urged to exercise caution handling any potential fire source, including machinery, cigarettes, and matches. Be sure to properly discard all smoking materials. Any dry grasses and tree litter that ignites will have the potential to spread fire quickly.

For more information about wildfire danger, burn restrictions, and wildfire prevention and education, please visit your state forestry or environmental protection website.

National Day of Silence

National Day of Silence in April each year is a student-led movement to protest bullying and harassment of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) students and those who support them. The Day of Silence brings awareness and illustrates to the schools and the colleges how intimidation, name-calling, and general bullying have a silencing effect. Participating students take a day-long vow of silence.

Bullying and harassment come in several forms. Whether it comes in a physical or verbal form, both are harmful and leave lasting damage. Bullies also harass by damaging property, manipulation or intimidation. No matter the form, the effects on the individual and surrounding community can be destructive. Show your support for the LGBT community by using on Social Media to bring awareness to this special day. As part of a class assignment on non-violent protests, the University of Virginia students organized the first Day of Silence in 1996. Since then, the National Day of Silence has been observed each year in April.

The First Earth Day

Earth Day, an event to increase public awareness of the world’s environmental problems, is celebrated in the United States for the first time on April 22, 1970. Millions of Americans, including students from thousands of colleges and universities, participated in rallies, marches and educational programs across the country.

Earth Day was the brainchild of Senator Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin, a staunch environmentalist who hoped to provide unity to the grassroots environmental movement and increase ecological awareness. “The objective was to get a nationwide demonstration of concern for the environment so large that it would shake the political establishment out of its lethargy,” Senator Nelson said, “and, finally, force this issue permanently onto the national political agenda.”

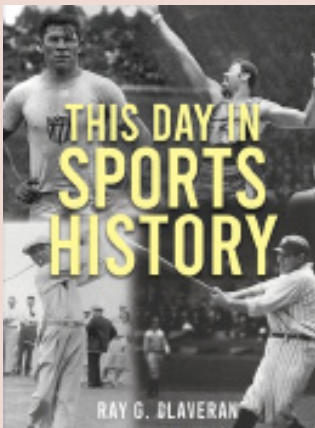

The 1962 publication of Rachel Carson’s book Silent Spring—about the effects of pesticides—is often cited as the beginning of the modern environmental movement in the U.S. Sustainability, organic eating and the “back-to-the-land” movement continued to gain steam throughout the 1960s.

On This Day.....

- 1500 Pedro Álvares Cabral is the first european to discover Brazil, landing near Monte Pascoal, claims it for Portugal
- 1915 1st military use of poison gas (chlorine, by Germany) in WW I
- 1993 Holocaust Memorial Museum dedicated in Washington, D.C.
- 1994 7,000 Tutsi slaughtered by Hutus in the stadium at Kibuye, Rwanda
- 2006 243 people are injured in pro-democracy protest in Nepal after Nepali security forces open fire on protesters against King Gyanendra.
- 2016 Paris Agreement on climate change signed in New York binding 195 nations to an increase in the global average temperature to less than 2°C above pre-industrial levels and to pursue efforts to limit the increase to 1.5°C

On This Day in Sports History

- 1876 1st official National League baseball game is played; Boston Red Caps beat Philadelphia Athletics, 6-5 at the Jefferson Street Grounds, Philadelphia
- 1876 Philadelphia native Tim McGinley of the Boston Red Caps scores baseball National League’s 1st run, in Philadelphia
- 1898 Baltimore James Hughes no-hits Boston Braves 8-0
- 1898 Cincinnati Red Theodore Breitenstein no-hits Pirates 11-0
- 1903 NY Highlanders (Yankees) first MLB game; lose 3-1 before 11,950 vs Washington Senators at American League Park
- 1906 Intercalated Games opens in Athens
- 1906 New rule puts umpire in sole charge of all game balls
- 1908 Queensland beat NSW by 171 runs for their 1st cricket win at Gabba-torHank Aaron

QUESTION OF THE DAY

Which of the following Best Picture nominees at the 2022 Academy Awards was a satire on climate change?

Considering Belfast, Dune, Nightmare Alley and Don’t Look Up, the answer is: Don’t Look Up.

Featuring a star-studded cast of Meryl Streep, Leonardo DiCaprio, Jennifer Lawrence, Cate Blanchett, and more, the Adam McKay-directed film Don’t Look Up broke Netflix records and was nominated for four Academy Awards.

From Anchorman to Step Brothers, director Adam McKay is known across the board for his sharp-witted satirical films, and Don’t Look Up is no exception. Although McKay’s 2021 release is far more serious with its treatment of climate change, the comedic notes are hard to miss..

Reflections on the Water

Friends of Minsi Lake cordially invites the public to an exhibit of local photographer Lisa Newberry's beautiful images of Minsi Lake at Bangor Area High School Performing Arts Theater from 5:00-7:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 23. The theater is located next to the baseball field at 123 Five Points Richmond Road, Bangor, PA 18013.

Sixteen photographs of Lisa's choice will be framed and mounted on display panels on the theater balcony, while many more of her photos of scenery at Minsi Lake will be shown on continuous loop inside the theater.

"I started spending many early mornings at Minsi to find peace and connect with nature," Newberry said. "In those times, I find such an appreciation for the beauty and wonder all around the lake. The camera became a tool that opened my eyes to the things we tend to overlook in our busy day to day lives."

Complimentary refreshments will be served on the theater balcony, from with amazing views of Blue Mountain and Delaware Water Gap. The photo exhibit is free-of-charge. However, Friends of Minsi Lake accept donations to support their efforts to improve natural and recreational resources at Minsi Lake and the Minsi Lake Greenway.

The friends group will also be collecting contact information to share news and updates with exhibit attendees throughout the rest of the year. A drawing will be held for door prizes of Lisa's framed photographs.

For more information about Friends of Minsi Lake, call 610-829-6404 or find them on Facebook at www.facebook.com/MinsiLake.

We Look Higher

The Slate Belt Heritage Center, Bangor, PA will give a glimpse into the African American experience in the Slate Belt in a new book and exhibit, starting April 30th.

A small community of African Americans settled in the upper tier of Northampton County from 1880-1970. Their story is told in a book and exhibit available to the public April 30th. You can also enjoy refreshed exhibits that feature early Slate Belt History, from the Lenape to the European settlers who established villages like Flicksville, to the waves of 19th and 20th century European immigrants that found employment in the slate, textile and garment industries and built local municipalities. The new firefighting exhibit features antique apparatus from the Slate Belt's golden industrial age.
