Why buy in season?

First, you are directly impacting the farmer’s bottom line in buying directly. Secondly, your local purchases of seasonal products will be at their peak freshness which means more delicious and nutritious for you and your family.

What Is PA Preferred

In Pennsylvania. It was started in 2004 and in 2011, Governor Tom Corbett approved the PA Preferred Act which officially names PA Preferred as Pennsylvania’s statewide branding program for local food and farms. Pennsylvania is home to 7.7 million acres of land in farms with the average farm size of 133 acres. The Commonwealth boasts 57,900 farms, 97% of which are family-owned. These farms are growing the food that fuels our citizens and these endeavors fuel the economy. Choosing to buy PA Preferred directly impacts our farmers and our Commonwealth. The PA Preferred membership base is broader than farmers, there are also businesses that directly support Pennsylvania agriculture by sourcing ingredients from Pennsylvania farms. PA Preferred processing members are the makers that add value to Pennsylvania agricultural goods. They are preserving the bounty by processing farm fresh items in a variety of ways. Pennsylvania farmers and the companies that process Pennsylvania-grown ingredients can join PA Preferred® to reap the benefits of this statewide brand identity.

Local Seniors Prepare for Easter Season

Some of the Seniors at the Slate Belt Sr. Center located in the Blue Valley Farm Show building are busy getting ready for Easter. Each holiday, they get together before or after their meal and create center pieces for each table to add a festive flair to their lunch.

This month they painted aluminum cans, decorating them with ribbons, Easter eggs, spring flowers and even turned some into cute Easter Bunnies. There is always much laughter and mess whenever this group gets together to craft! And the centerpieces will look great as they share their Easter Meal, then participating in a special Bingo afterwards.

Other fun activities the seniors enjoy are exercising, game day, crochet class, they even have their own version of baseball. There are even special classes held to educate the Seniors on important issues such as health, pain management and healthy eating.

On April 9th, 2006, Mimi Dawn, had a seizure while driving alone; resulting in a horrendous collision with a row of large trees. She miraculously survived thanks to the amazing first responders, doctors, and the many pints of blood she received from Miller-Keystone Blood Center during two days of life-saving surgery. To ensure others in life-threatening situations have the blood they need to survive, my wife, Mimi Dawn, is celebrating her second chance and what we call her re-birthday, through coordinating blood drives.

TEACH (The Epilepsy And Community Help Group). TEACH is a local Eastern Pennsylvanian nonprofit that hosts blood, food, and clothing drives and advocates for epilepsy, diabetes, cancer, and other debilitating diseases. TEACH was created in response to Mimi Dawn's personal experience with such diseases.

National All is Ours Day

Observed each year on April 8th, National All Is Ours Day takes us along three views of appreciation. Celebrate each of the approaches to the day or pick the one that best suits you.

The first approach to the day can be looked at as a time to reflect on all of the beauty of nature and all the wonderful things in life. Rarely do we have the time to explore all that nature offers us. Something as simple as the variety of birds that inhabit a local park or backyard can surprise us. Venturing further out, we can discover our National Parks or trail system. Whether we look up to the skies or closer at the new spring blooms, taking in our surroundings is a spectacular gift to enjoy.

The second way to celebrate the day is by appreciating everything we have. Even when we don't have much, what we do have is a blessing. This approach encourages counting those blessings and avoiding thinking about the things we do not have.

A third way to view the day is by sharing all that we have. Regardless of what we have, sharing it seems to make tough times easier when we all work together.

QUESTION OF THE DAY

The dance form of tango originated from which country?

And the answer: Argentina.

The tango evolved in the late 19th century in the streets of Buenos Aires in Argentina and Montevideo in Uruguay. The dance evolved from the South American milonga, the Cuban habanera, and the traditional rhythms of the Argentinian African population.

There's no doubt you've seen the tango performed in a movie (or maybe you've danced one yourself). These days, the tango is one of the most popular dances in the world, and is celebrated for its fire and passion. Yet, its origins were far from glamorous. Along the La Plata River lies the border which separates Argentina and Uruguay.

Aaron Breaks Babe Ruth's Home Run Record

On April 8, 1974, Hank Aaron of the Atlanta Braves hits his 715th career home run, breaking Babe Ruth's legendary record of 714 homers. A crowd of 53,775 people, the largest in the history of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was with Aaron that night to cheer when he hit a 4th inning pitch off the Los Angeles Dodgers' Al Downing. However, as Aaron was an African American who had received death threats and racist hate mail during his pursuit of one of baseball's most distinguished records, the achievement was bittersweet.

Henry Louis Aaron Jr., born in Mobile, Alabama, on February 5, 1934, made his Major League debut in 1954 with the Milwaukee Braves, just seven years after Jackie Robinson broke baseball's color barrier and became the first African American to play in the majors. Aaron, known as hard working and quiet, was the last Negro league player to also compete in the Major Leagues. In 1957, with characteristically little fanfare, Aaron, who primarily played right field, was named the National League's Most Valuable Player as the Milwaukee Braves won the pennant. A few weeks later, his three home runs in the World Series helped his team triumph over the heavily favored New York Yankees.

Reflections on the Water

Friends of Minsi Lake cordially invites the public to an exhibit of local photographer Lisa Newberry's beautiful images of Minsi Lake at Bangor Area High School Performing Arts Theater from 5:00-7:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 23. The theater is located next to the baseball field at 123 Five Points Richmond Road, Bangor, PA 18013.

Sixteen photographs of Lisa's choice will be framed and mounted on display panels on the theater balcony, while many more of her photos of scenery at Minsi Lake will be shown on continuous loop inside the theater.

"I started spending many early mornings at Minsi to find peace and connect with nature," Newberry said. "In those times, I find such an appreciation for the beauty and wonder all around the lake. The camera became a tool that opened my eyes to the things we tend to overlook in our busy day to day lives."

Complimentary refreshments will be served on the theater balcony, from with amazing views of Blue Mountain and Delaware Water Gap. The photo exhibit is free-of-charge. However, Friends of Minsi Lake accept donations to support their efforts to improve natural and recreational resources at Minsi Lake and the Minsi Lake Greenway.

The friends group will also be collecting contact information to share news and updates with exhibit attendees throughout the rest of the year. A drawing will be held for door prizes of Lisa's framed photographs.
