Today is.....

International Beer Day

International Beer Day is a day to celebrate and savor the world's most popular alcoholic beverage. Raise a glass of beer today to toast both breweries and bartenders. It is truly a global celebration, enjoyed by people over 50 countries around the world.

People have enjoyed beer since about 6,000 B.C. Ancient civilizations even referred to it as a food staple. There are two categories of beer: Lager and Ale, and thankfully hundreds, if not thousands of varieties. The exponential growth of small, local micro-breweries, has resulted in a wide range of new and exciting varieties.

DYK? Beer is the second most popular beverage in the world, second only to Tea.

George Washington had his own Brewhouse on the his estate at Mount Vernon, V.A.

The Livestock Show and Sale and a performance by the Bangor High School Marching Band will be held at 1:00pm Saturday August 14 at the Blue Valley Farm Show. Photos: Larry Cory
