Charlotte and Liam Top Most Popular Baby Names for 2022 at LVHN

Lehigh Valley, Pa. (Dec. 27, 2022) – You might say today's Tom, Dick and Harry will be tomorrow's Liam, Noah and Lucas. The latter are once again among the most popular boys' baby names chosen by parents delivering their newborns at Lehigh Valley Health Network (LVHN) in 2022. Last year, Liam, Noah and Lucas were one, two and three. This year's results nearly mirror the most popular boys' names nationally too.

For girls, recent trends also continue. The most popular girl's name at LVHN in 2022 was Charlotte, but not far behind you'll find Sophia, Isabella and Olivia. Nationally, Olivia, Emma and Amelia top the selections, with Sophia and Isabella ranking in the top six according to babycenter.com.

Of nearly 6,500 births at LVHN so far in 2022, 46 boys were named Liam compared to 48 a year ago. Noah was the name of choice 39 times among parents who delivered boys. Forty-seven boys were named Noah a year ago.

Thirty-four girls were named Charlotte this year, and it was the most popular name among girls born at both Lehigh Valley Hospital (LVH)–Cedar Crest and LVH–Muhlenberg. Coming in a close second among girls' names was Sophia with various spellings, with Isabella not far behind.

Among names that appear to be growing in popularity based on this year's selections at LVHN is Nova, with 13 girls given that name.

Other interesting and unique girls' names that show up on the list include Honesty, Ocean, Hermione and Winter. For boys' names, Ocean was among the unique picks along with Hendrix, Bronx and the seasonally appropriate Messiah.

The popularity of names does vary by region. In the Lehigh Valley, Charlotte, Sophia and Isabella were the most common girls' names. At LVH–Pocono, Abigail led the way. Sophia was the top girls' name at LVH–Hazleton, and five girls were given the name Harper to top all others at LVH–Schuylkill. Among boys, Liam, Noah and Elijah were the most common picks in the Lehigh Valley, with Noah and Liam also popular in the Hazleton area. At LVH–Pocono, Wyatt took the top spot for boys, and Hudson was the most popular selection at LVH–Schuylkill.

This Day In History

First Commercial Movie Screened

On December 28, 1895, the world's first commercial movie screening takes place at the Grand Cafe in Paris. The film was made by Louis and Auguste Lumiere, two French brothers who developed a camera-projector called the Cinematographe. The Lumiere brothers unveiled their invention to the public in March 1895 with a brief film showing workers leaving the Lumiere factory. On December 28, the entrepreneurial siblings screened a series of short scenes from everyday French life and charged admission for the first time.

Movie technology has its roots in the early 1830s, when Joseph Plateau of Belgium and Simon Stampfer of Austria simultaneously developed a device called the phenakistoscope, which incorporated a spinning disc with slots through which a series of drawings could be viewed, creating the effect of a single moving image. The phenakistoscope, considered the precursor of modern motion pictures, was followed by decades of advances and in 1890, Thomas Edison and his assistant William Dickson developed the first motion-picture camera, called the Kinetograph.
