PLAY4KAY - WOMEN FIGHTING CANCER

The pink signs people are holding had a name of someone affected by cancer.

Play4Kay Honors Coach Kay Yow.

Through Play4Kay, Coach Kay Yow saw a way to bring communities together and honor cancer warriors in the fight against all cancers affecting women. Uniting players, coaches, officials, and fans to do something for the greater good that far exceeds wins and losses in competition, the Play4Kay initiative is their largest fundraiser and plays a major role in their success.

Sandra Kay Yow (March 14, 1942 – January 24, 2009) was the head coach of the NC State Wolfpack women's basketball team from 1975 to 2009. A member of the Naismith Hall of Fame, she had more than 700 career wins.

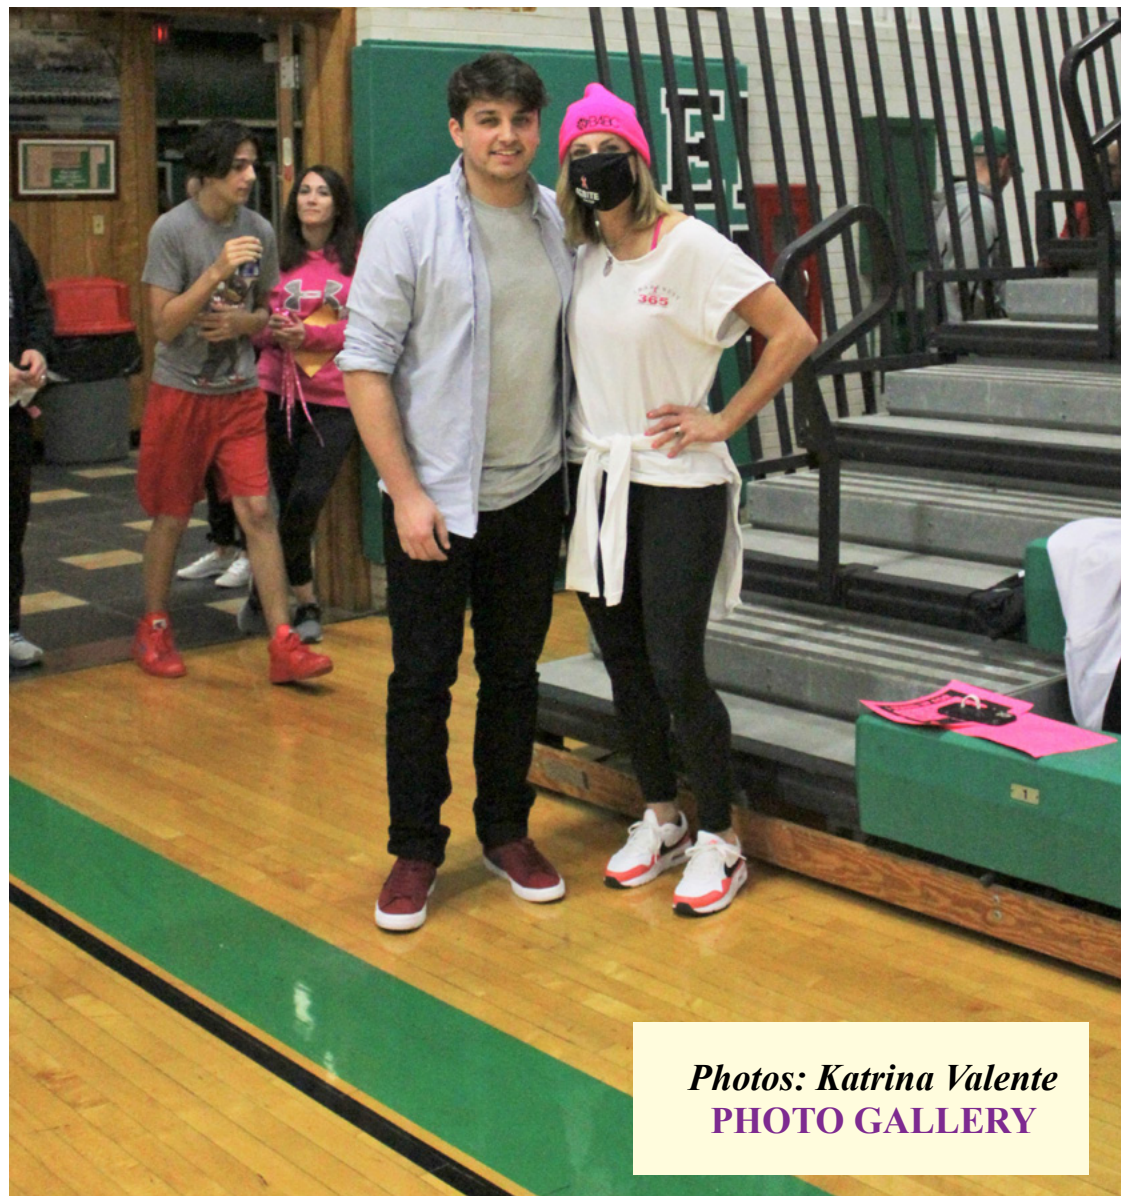

She also coached the U.S. women's basketball team to an Olympic gold medal in 1988 despite having been diagnosed with breast cancer in 1987. In 2000, Yow was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. In 2009, she was inducted into the FIBA Hall of Fame.

In April 2010, CollegeInsider.com created a new award called the Kay Yow National Coach of the Year Award in her honor. It will be presented annually to the women's college basketball head coach who displays great personal character on and off the court.

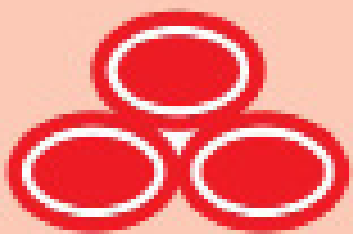

Play4Kay is a program that schools participate in for raising cancer awareness. Their website: <https://kayyow.com/play4kay/>

Slate Belt Organizations

Locally, Jen Mutchler and Ty Lutz (Right) represent the organizations they've made for fighting cancer. Mutchler has a breast cancer awareness program called Awareness 365. Lutz and his family have a program called Greet the Dawn for his mom who passed away with colon cancer.

Roseto Ice Rink Becomes a Reality

by Larry Cory

For several years Roseto Councilman Ken Tillman attempted to provide an ice skating venue at Roseto Ballpark. Each winter he and workers from the borough created a section of ice at the park for ice skating and hockey. Problem was - the ice didn't last - it melted.

After several years Tillman and the borough decided to use artificial ice, but not the kind that would be used in an arena with refrigerated pipes. Roseto, however, is using interlocking plastic sections to form a rink that covers the basketball court at the ballpark which is open to the public everyday from 8-8.

The cost of the project was funded by a generous donation from the estate of the late Dr. Albert Falcone.

According to google, the first known instance of plastic products as a substitute for real or artificial ice for the purpose of skating was back in the 1960s.

Basically, the main difference between real ice, artificial or natural, and synthetic ice is glide. When you skate on ice, the heat from the friction of your blade causes the ice to melt slightly.

The small amount of water this friction produces allows you to slide or glide over the ice. This water acts as a lubricant against drag. With synthetic ice, this lubrication had to be fabricated.

However, with newer products that is no longer the case. A slip agent is built into the polymer sheets which the manufacturer says will never leak.

PEN ARGYL BOYS WIN BELVIDERE TOURNEY

by Larry Cory

The Pen Argyl Boys Basketball team defeated Sussex Tech 57-37 to win the Belvidere Christmas Tourney yesterday at Belvidere High School, NJ.

The Knights avenged a loss to North Warren in last year's title game playing without the services of Damian Tyminski. This year, however, Tyminski scored 20 points to lead the Green Knights to the championship.

Pen Argyl which beat North Warren in the semi final game yesterday to reach the final, also got 15 points from Christian Hershey while Chase Kennedy added 10.

The Knights have played well over the past two weeks winning three of four games with their only loss to Lehighton by three points.

Their run started with a 45-40 win over Bangor which was the first win over the Slaters since 2008 and a streak of 26 games. The last Pen Argyl win prior to this year happened when the Green Knights handed the Slaters a 46-40 loss on February 1, 2008. Head Coaches that year were Mike Frew at Pen Argyl and Bron Holland at Bangor, who were both in their first year as head coaches in the Slate Belt.

Pen Argyl's record has improved to 4-5 this year with a good chance to reach .500 next week when they entertain Palisades Thursday and Northwestern Saturday.

Tyminski leads the team in scoring with 10.8 ppg. He is getting good support from Trowne Irwin-Hill, Hershey with 17 threes this year, Chase Kennedy, who hit 10 of 10 from the free throw line earlier this week, Brad Rissmiller and freshman Mason Soos.

Boys....
