Slate Belt Heritage Center 2022 Preservation Awards

The Slate Belt Heritage Center proudly announces the winners for this year's Annual Preservation Awards.

The Special Focus Award goes to an individual who has shown exemplary actions in saving or conserving traditions or a body of knowledge and contributes to educational information. This year's winner is Douglas Wynne has spent his artistic career painting watercolors of historic buildings and areas throughout the Slate Belt by traveling across the local countryside to capture the character and sentiment of the region and its people. He has shown a deep interest in preserving the many historical buildings and locales, especially the paintings of the historic Bangor viaduct and old Bangor Pool.

The Architectural Award goes to a business that has shown an exemplary act in saving or conserving a historic building, place or artifact where restoration is authentic to preservation. This year's winner is Richmond Farm and Brewery. Owners, Eric and Melissa Smith have completed the restoration of one of the most unique 20th century barns and fields in the Slate Belt. This farm sat empty for over 25 years. It deteriorated during this time, however, their efforts were able to save the structure allowing for their business to then become the first Barn Brewery not only in the Slate Belt, but also in the Lehigh Valley region.

The Initiative Award goes to an individual who has shown exemplary actions in promoting and preserving the heritage of the Slate Belt through In-Kind Actions. The award is to acknowledge individuals who have performed acts that promote and preserve the culture and heritage of the Slate Belt. This year's winner is Scott Edwards who has volunteered his time and efforts into the founding and managing of the extremely popular Facebook page, "You Know You Grew Up in the Slate Belt if....." The page is used by many Slate Belt residents and former residents who live throughout the country, as well as people who are interested in the area. The page has become a central location for vintage photos and historical information. He works to keep a close eye on the posts, on his own time, without compensation. His site also serves as an avenue for those doing research and documenting information on the Slate Belt. He has shown a detailed interest for historical accounts of the region.

A public ceremony, for these awards, will be held on Thursday, June 16th, at 7:00 PM at the Heritage Center. at 30 North 1st Street, Bangor, PA. For additional information contact: Karen Brewer @ 484-894-5661.

Native Gardens for Small Spaces

Saturday, June 18 at 4:00pm to 5:30pm

Many of our beautiful native plants are often overlooked or just plain ignored by gardeners. Join us for moderate walk and learn about the importance of including native plants to your garden. We'll introduce you to plants that meet a variety of garden conditions and attract different species of butterflies and birds. The program will focus on species that are appropriate for smaller sized gardens. Non-native plants that can become invasive and should be avoided will also be covered. Please bring water, a snack, wear sturdy shoes and dress appropriately for the weather.

Registration is required. You can view and register for community programs online at <https://events.dcnr.pa.gov/search/events?order=date&search=jacobsburg>
