The Finale - Celebrate the Life of Jean Pinto

On Saturday, November 24 at 2 pm in the Wind Gap Middle School The New Approach will perform "The Finale" A Celebration of the Life of Jean Pinto.

Jean was "Mother" to everyone who ever sang, played an instrument for or worked with The New Approach. She dedicated her life to helping find a cure for cancer, a disease which touched the lives of many members of the group. Ironically, Jean's daughter lost her life to cancer along with Tim Caraccio (for whom the group was originally started) and several other members of The New Approach.

Everyone who knew Jean, loved her. She was an aid in the Bangor School District, a former choir director at Trinity UCC in Stone Church, and the Director of Music for many years at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Plainfield Township. She led the Children's choir and the Praise Team at St. Peter's until her death.

The members of The New Approach decided that there should be one final show dedicated to this amazing woman who lived her life loving music and sharing that love with everyone she met. If you're thinking it will be a performance of sad songs, you're wrong. The group has compiled a lineup of audience and group favorites, most of which are very "happy" songs. You'll hear the Little Approach perform as only kids can, the "Oldies" group will be there and of course members of the current group along with former members who have come back to join in the celebration.

Originally the show was going to be held in St. Peter's Church but through word of mouth and so many people saying they'd be attending the celebration, the location was changed to Wind Gap Middle School Auditorium so there is enough room for all those who want to be there.

The members of The New Approach look forward to celebrating the life of their "mother", Jean Pinto and would be grateful to see a full house on November 24. They can't promise there won't be some tears shed, but they do promise there will be lots of joy, laughter and smiles as they remember Jean.
