Bangor Public Library Celebrating 100 Years

It Was Once Known as Steinmetz Memorial Library

by Larry Cory

The Bangor Public Library, celebrating its 100th anniversary this year, is one of only a few non-governmental organizations still functioning after 100 years in the Borough of Bangor.

Although the Bangor Public Library changed locations and temporarily changed its name, it has remained active since it began in 1921. The library was first located on lower Market Street in the Merkel building, now Sabatini's. From there it was moved a few doors east to a building which eventually housed a beauty salon near the bridge.

In 1926, it was moved to a building adjacent to Town Hall on First Street (Rt. 191) which eventually became the first Bee Hive Youth Center before it was destroyed by fire March 2, 1968. Today, that location is a parking lot for the Bangor Police Department.

The library was later moved to its present location in 1940, making this a significant time in Bangor Borough History, since Bangor Memorial Park and the above-ground park swimming pool were built during that same time period.

The present location was the site of the Merchants National Bank until the bank was moved into the old Republican Club on Broadway.

The Bank was organized in 1890 and was situated on a piece of land with 62-feet of frontage which was purchased by Dr. John Buzzard from William Speer for $4,500 ($135,000 in today's money). The Bank remained there until August 1940 when Robert H. Steinmetz, a Bangor Furniture Dealer and Mortician, donated the building to Bangor Borough in honor of his wife Ida. Steinmetz also donated $5,000 ($97,000 in today's money) for "necessary alterations."

The new library also included "club rooms" for the Bangor Woman's Club which was a major supporter of the Bangor Public Library for many years. The library also became known as the Steinmetz Memorial Library from 1940 until 1952. Steinmetz died in 1952 and all future references were to the Bangor Public Library.

The Woman's club under President Mrs. William Blake started the library project in 1921 when the club's library committee raised $1,000 ($15,000 today) for a public library in Bangor. Actually, the Woman's Club of Bangor had begun plans for a library as early January 20, 1917 when they arranged a lecture course with the proceeds used to start a fund for a "Free Public Library in the Borough," according to a story in the Allentown Democrat. Thus, the library, presumably, could have begun at least five years earlier had it not been for WWI and the Spanish Flu pandemic.

In May 1922, Judge William McKeen approved the charter of the Bangor Public Library Association which was filed at the Northampton County Court House. The following notable citizens were elected as directors for one year: Willis R. Jordan, (Bangor Mayor), Albert Foulkes (Warden Northampton County Prison), May Tuttle Long, Anna Reisner, Nellie M. Rehrig, Flora Lentz, Frances E. Flake, Annie Nagle, Nellie S. Masters, Lila Frances, Walter Mutchler (Superintendent at Kayser Co.). Thomas Kichline (Clerk of Orphans Court) and William J. Bawden, (teacher at Bangor High School).

By 1928, 300 new members had joined the library and book circulation had risen to 18,500 per year. N.E. Masters was the first librarian, serving for 11 years. Olive Blake, relative of Mrs. William Blake, became the new librarian in 1932 and served until 1966. Blake, among her other accomplishments, began the children's story hour which is still popular today.

Heritage Center Ghosts Will Walk Again

The Slate Belt Heritage Center announces that our ghosts will be walking again on Thursday, October 28 at 7:00 p.m. In-person visitors on that evening will be meeting various local ghosts who will be talking about their life in the Slate Belt when they lived here. It promises to be a fun, ghost-filled evening. Advance ticket sale information will be posted on the Center's Facebook page. The ticket price will be $10.00. The Heritage Center is a 501©3 organization devoted to preserving and teaching about the culture and history of the Slate Belt region.

Wabi-sabi - Beauty in the Imperfect

Tuesday, October 5 at 5:00pm to 7:00pm

As Pennsylvania's lush summer greenery begins to die back and plants go dormant, we are left with dry, withered stems and browned landscapes. Wabi-sabi, the Japanese concept of finding beauty in something that is imperfect, decaying, or deteriorating is what we will discuss at this program. Participants will be able to learn about and gather expired native and invasive plant stems to create a wabi-sabi-inspired floral arrangement to take home. This free program is for adults only and is offered in both English and Spanish. Registration is required. <https://events.dcnr.pa.gov/search/events?order=date&search=jacobsburg>.

October 7

Weekly Weeders

Thursdays, October 7, 14, 21, 28 at 8:30am to 10:30am

Interested in learning more about gardening with native plants? Volunteer to work alongside our education staff as they mulch, pull weeds, divide plants, and amend soil in the center's native plant garden. We provide instruction, tools, and weeding mats. Registration is required.

You can view and register for community programs online at <https://events.dcnr.pa.gov/search/events?order=date&search=jacobsburg>.

October 9

Brewsic Fest

Join Washington Township Volunteer Fire Co. for their first-ever Brewsic Fest on October 9th on the fire house grounds.

Northampton County Aging Agency Call Line

Lamont McClure and the Area Agency on Aging Division (AAA) are operating a call line on Friday mornings for all Northampton County Seniors to make appointments for COVID-19 vaccinations.

This service is intended for those who lack computer or internet access. AAA staff members will make 100 appointments per clinic date. Vaccination clinics will be held at the Wind Creek Event Center at 77 Wind Creek Blvd. Bethlehem, PA.

Residents of Bethlehem City and Northampton County who are age sixty-five and older can call 610-865-7092 to schedule an appointment for a vaccination. AAA employees will also assist with registration at the Wind Creek clinics.

Slate Belt Y Child Care

The Greater Valley YMCA has announced the expansion of its child care offerings at its Slate Belt location. The Y now offers care for toddlers and preschool children ages 2 through 5 in its newly-constructed child care wing.

County Assistance

In light of Pennsylvania's eviction moratorium expiring on August 31st, Lamont McClure reminds residents that Northampton County has approximately $3.6 million available for rental assistance, rapid rehousing and utility payments.

The Department of Human Services and the Department of Community and Economic Development worked together to develop the Community Mediation and Eviction Diversion Program (CMED). CMED offers experienced mediators, emergency financial assistance and rapid rehousing to prevent homelessness.

Contact: Third Street Alliance at 610-438-1763 or email Ziana Keith at zkeith@thirdstreetalliance.org

Hotline for Human Services

Northampton County has a 24-hour Emergency hotline for all Human Services-related emergencies. Anyone struggling with a mental health crisis, abuse, neglect, suicidal thoughts, evictions, substance abuse, food insecurity, etc. can call 610-252-9060 for help and referrals.

Fall Story Hour

The Blue Mountain Community Library will once again be offering Story Hour to pre-school children. The Fall Program will be held at Weona Park under the large pavilion on alternate Wednesdays in September, October and November, weather permitting. The dates are Sept. 15 and 29; Oct. 13 and 27; and Nov. 10. The programs will begin at 10:30 am and consist of two stories, singing and rhythm sticks, and a craft.

The programs are free to all, but a reservation must be made by the Monday before the program in order that we will have a craft kit for each child. Call the Library at 610-863-3029 to make a reservation

VALOR Clinic Thursday Meetings

"You knew that you had each other's backs in battle. That can't change now that you're home. Find your brothers. Fight for each other as hard and as desperately as you did when people were shooting at you." - Unknown

Every Thursday night at 7:00pm is an open invite to all veterans to join the Peer to Peer group in a safe environment at Paul's House 1130 Scenic Drive. Kunkletown, PA.

You are welcome to join them for dinner at 6:00pm.

Pumpkin Carving Contest Cash Prizes

Octoberfest this year will be held at Bangor Memorial Park (90 Eisenhart Blvd) on Saturday and Sunday, October 16th (4 pm to 8:30 pm) and October 17th (4 pm to 8 pm).

Individuals and/or groups are needed to enter in the themed, carved pumpkin display. Maybe you own a business and you have a group of employees who would like to get together to carve some pumpkins to enter in the contest for the chance of winning prizes.

You can pick whatever theme you would like. There are tons of carving themes on the internet. There have been some interesting themes in the past such as Harry Potter, classic cars, Toy Story, Elvis, Peanuts, etc. Do you play a sport?

Maybe your group wants to carve pumpkins to show support for that sport?

The only cost to enter is that you have to buy your own pumpkins. A group of themed pumpkins has to have a minimum of 2 pumpkins in their themed display but you can have as many as you want to carve on display. To sign up and for more information, contact Sherry Haycock at 610-588-6894

There will be CASH prizes awarded for the top 3 best groups of themed, carved pumpkins. Prizes are $100 for 1st place, $50 for 2nd place and $25.00 for 3rd place.

In addition, the scarecrow making booth is in need of old stockings and clothing (pants, jeans, t-shirts, long sleeve shirts, hats, etc. They can have holes in them. You can drop them off at the Bangor Borough Building.

Octoberfest is a 2 -day event (which takes place at night) which features food, craft/gift vendors, scarecrow making, pumpkin carving/painting, hay ride and costume contest with prizes. Our main feature is the train ride that will take you around the park to see all of the carved, lit up Jack-O-Lanterns on display.

Volunteers are needed to help in all aspects of the event from collecting tickets at booths, running booths, helping to set up and clean up the pumpkin displays and working in the concession stand.

For more information or to volunteer, contact Debbie Smith at bangorparkboard@gmail.com (prefer email) or call 610-751-7692
