All Aspects at the Barn Adds Pavilion

All Aspects at the Barn, owned by Ray and Becky Higgins on 1584 S. Delaware Drive, Mt. Bethel, PA are thrilled to announce the latest addition to their property – a newly refinished pavilion that can comfortably seat up to 100 guests.

This versatile space is now available for rent, perfect for hosting memorable birthday parties, private gatherings, and special occasions. Whether you're celebrating a milestone or simply want to create unforgettable moments, their pavilion provides the ideal setting conveniently located near their petting farm and playground, offering a delightful blend of natural surroundings and family-friendly activities for your events.

Book now and let them help you craft unforgettable memories in this picturesque setting. For more information, contact Becky at 610-509-5881 or via email at allaspectsrecycled@gmail.com. For more information on booking a Birthday Party at All Aspects at the Barn, visit their website at: <https://www.allaspectsbarn.com/>

They have additional parking in their back lot, behind the Barn.

All Aspect began a short distance down S. Delaware Drive, but moved to its present location two years ago.

Their present location is at the site of the former Johnston property. Ray and Becky cleared the property of trees and other things but left the old barn in place.

The frame of the barn, using mortise and tenon joinery in chestnut wood, still functions well after 125 years or more.

The farmers who tamed Mt. Bethel and other parts of the area first had to clear the land for growing plants and providing space for livestock. They also needed shelter to survive. Harvested timbers of chestnut, oak or maple provided the raw materials to build cabins, houses, and barns.

The straightest, truest, and strongest were used for beams. After the cream of the forest crop had been chosen, the logs were skidded to the barn site and rough-hewn into beams with axes.

Higgins used a similar process to build a second story to their barn from pieces of another old barn in the area.

Slaters Mix Runs & Passes to Trample Lehigh 49-20

Bangor 5-2 With 3 Games Left

Bangor started a bit slow Friday night at Lehigh, but shifted gears late in the first period when quarterback Greg Campbell connected with wide receiver Alex Farensbach on a 50-yard pass play to take a 7-0 lead with 4:20 to play in the quarter. In the second quarter, Campbell threw his second of three touchdown passes when he completed a 25-yard strike to MJ Siu, giving the Slaters a 14-0 lead.

Any thoughts of a rout were temporarily put to rest later in the period when the Indians scored a pair of touchdowns, changing the course of a shutout to a 14-14 tie.

Campbell and Farensbach, however, gave the Slaters momentum going into the second half, when they combined on a two-yard pass play for a 21-14 advantage at halftime.

Running back Noah Hillis ignited the Bangor ground game in the third quarter when he ran for a 64-yard touchdown making the score 28-14.

Hillis later lit up the scoreboard when he broke through the line on a five-yard run for his second of three touchdowns putting the Slaters up three scores with a 35-14 lead.

Lehigh, however, was not yet ready to throw in the sponge when they connected on a long pass play cutting the Slater lead to 35-20.

Hillis, however, rambled 38 yards a shortly thereafter giving the Slaters a commanding 42-20 lead.

Campbell later put the proverbial icing on the cake when he ran around the right side for a 49-20 lead.

Homecoming is scheduled for next Friday when the Slaters will host undefeated Northwestern (7-0) which crushed Pottsville 56-14 last night.
